

Hobson’s Produce

by Kathy Hiller

For several years now, Steve Hobson has brought in produce to the golf lounge from his property to share with everyone. Unfortunately, several factors have happened that have brought this to a halt.

First, the over-abundance of rain this winter didn’t allow for the ground to dry out until much later than usual. Second, his son sold the tractor and discs that Steve used to till up the soil and he says it is too much of a job for his rototiller. Third, his wife is home from the hospital, still recovering from her surgery at OHSU.

He apologizes to everyone, but says this year there will be no produce to share and due to the tractor situation, it is probably the last year permanently. Thank you, Steve. for your past efforts and generous nature.

[Steve asked me to add his thanks to those who contributed to his seed fund, helping him to supply his nice vegetables, etc. Ed.]

Wanted - News & Views Carrier

by Vicki Spencer

Hey, residents of the Woodburn Estates & Golf! We need someone to volunteer to take a paper route on the Quinn Road cul de sac off Finzer Way and Sallal Road from Finzer Way to Country Club Road. If you can't take this route on a regular basis, please consider being an alternate to the regular carriers.

We will provide you with a map to show you just exactly where the route is located and how many papers you will deliver. Volunteers are what keeps Woodburn Estates strong. Please consider delivering the News & Views. Please call Vicki at 503-982-2027 or 503-757-9550.

Rose Garden

by Dena Hollod

Woodburn Estates & Golf’s rose garden is in need of a new leader. Leonard Schmidt (after 16 years) wants to retire. He is also having health problems like the rest of us oldsters. We need new and younger helpers – people in their 60s-70s.

Work only consists of about 1 hour a week to cut out dead flowers. This is only during the months of June, July, and August. No heavy work.

Usually our committee meets on Mondays at about 8 a.m., but you can set your own hours. We have had four of us working in the past so it went fast. We have over 2,000 people in the Woodburn Estates & Golf community. Can’t we find four people to help us keep our rose gardens looking great? Call Leonard at 503-201-7233.

Spring is Clematis Time

by Donna Wood

Spring is a good time to plant a clematis. There are many from which to choose. They vary in size, color, type of flower and their preference for shade or sun. For example, their size can range from a foot tall perennial, to shrubs, to a 30 foot vine, and everything in-between. And remember, the size listed on the tag usually refers to how tall they grow in the Eastern U.S. and they will usually grow larger in the Willamette Valley as our conditions are ideal for most clematis.

There are many colors available, from reds to pinks, to blues and lavenders, to dark purples and reddish purples, to whites and yellows. Some are a combination of colors. There are large-flowered, small-flowered, double-flowered and a number of bells.

Most of the larger vine types prefer to be planted as deep as 18 inches to get the root ball below frost level. Most like regular watering and feeding with rose fertilizer every month during the growing season and can be pruned after they flower to keep them in bounds. Deadheading the flowers will promote more blooms. If you plan, with a variety of clematis, you can have something blooming every month of the year. Many will adapt to pot culture.

To see clematis growing and flowering in the landscape, visit the Rogerson Clematis Garden at Luscher Farm on Rosemont off of Stafford Road in Lake Oswego. They have the largest collection in the U.S. They also sell plants. Another place with a display garden and a variety of plants for sale is Joy Creek Nursery in St. Helens. They also offer new ones hybridized in Japan. Locally, my garden is open for visitors. I have over 60 varieties and a number of unusual ones you won’t see at the local nurseries.

Kudos to Jim Taylor and Frank Jameson

by Marge Epling

On June 10th, my purse was stolen out of the kitchen during the dance. Jim and Frank were very diligent in helping me. They found my wallet and purse behind the compressor at the back door. Of course my credit cards were gone, along with the gift cards. It made me realize how much I carry that is not necessary. THANK YOU, JIM AND FRANK. You are what makes our community.

Music Jammers

by Dena Hollod

- Free coffee, cookies, pastries!
- Free music, wonderful singers, and amazing musicians!
- June 25 at 2 p.m. in the Woodburn Estates & Golf Dining Hall.
- Music Jammers are every 2nd and 4th Sunday of the month.

Music Makers

by Bonnie Block

Be sure and come to our meeting July 3, 2017, at 1:00 p.m., in the Auditorium. We will be having great music with Bob Trojak on the accordion, playing some great tunes for our enjoyment.

We have changed our election terms of office from the usual ‘June to June’ to ‘September to September’ so dues will be in line with the new officers. New Officers will be voted in at the August 7th meeting and start their year as officers on the September 11 meeting. Dues are due at the September 11 meeting. We hope this will simplify the Officers’ year starting and the dues being on the same dates for less confusion.

Everyone please be sure to come to the August 7 meeting. You will be hearing from the nominating committee, so be interested in our club and, if you can volunteer to be an officer so we can keep things running smoothly, that will be great.

Cookies will be brought by Joanne Borschowa and Barbara Cox. Decorations will be by Arlene Egli, great coffee by Bee Groshong, Tony Polinsky who graciously sets up the tables, and I already mentioned our great musician, Bob Trojak.

Remember this is really just a social club so come on out and join us. We would love to have you visit and maybe you will like us and join. Our dues are only $5.00 per year. We have potlucks a couple of times; just great fun.

Woodburn Estates Dance and Social Club

by Bill Coleman, Chairman

RE: “A Summer’s Eve Picnic”

The hard country sounds of “Crossfire” return to the Second Saturday monthly dance held at the Woodburn Estates Auditorium, 1776 Country Club Road, on July 8th for a casual “Summer’s Eve Picnic”. The fun starts at 7:00p.m.

The Woodburn Estates Dance and Social Club is now offering a selection of popular domestic and imported brews at bargain prices for your enjoyment, or bring a bottle of your favorite wine. We’ll uncork it for you for free! An assortment of delicious snacks will be hosted by your friends and neighbors of the Woodburn Estates Dance and Social Club.

Your $8.00 admission gets you into the party, and automatically enters you in the evening’s door prize drawing. We also invite you to take a chance to win a big cash prize by participating in the evening’s 50/50 raffle. To reserve a table for your special group, call Marge at 503-981-1421.

Next up: The “Rockhounds” return with their special brand of ‘60’s rock and roll on August 12th.

When it comes to Roofing... Don't be fooled by what the competition may have to offer!

FACT

Over the past 15 years RoofRite Services has successfully installed over 140+ New Roofs within Woodburn Estates and we have the statistics to back it up! It has always been our goal to exceed the minimum requirements for roof installation. New roofing contractors come and go, but RoofRite Services has a proven track record and, the reason we install the larger number of roofs can be summed up in three ways:

- 1. Above Standard Quality Products and Service.
- 2. Long Term Service and Stability with Proven Track Record.
- 3. Lifetime Warranty High Wind Algae Resistant Shingles

Men's Golf General Meeting Minutes

Woodburn Estates Men's Golf Membership Meeting
June 7, 2017

President Paul Eaton called the Meeting to order at 10 a.m. in the Dining Hall, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance.

Roll Call: Paul Eaton, Will Abshire, Allan Lindberg, Chuck Johnson, Ron Hansen, Len Westphal, Ron Gripenstraw, Clint Hansen, Stan Hiller, and Fred Bourne. Past President Russ Krussow was also in attendance. A total of 33 members attended the Meeting.

New Members: Before beginning with the Officer and Committee Reports, President Eaton asked if there were any new members in attendance. Three new members introduced themselves as follows: Dick Miller, Bob Trojak, and Mike Archer. These new members were welcomed by members present and President Eaton. President Eaton then informed them of daily games that are played on our golf course around 10 a.m. and at noon on several days of the week. He invited and welcomed the new members to participate in these games.

President's Report: President Eaton stated that he needed volunteers to set up tables right after our Meeting as the Ladies Golf Club is having a luncheon after their play today. President Eaton then discussed several issues that had been brought to his attention as follows: The General Manager has prepared eligibility requirements to participate in the Oregon Trail Program, a matter that will be discussed in more detail by our Vice President, Will Abshire, in his report today. Another matter brought to President Eaton's attention was a request by a member that a cover be placed over our Practice Range to allow practice during inclement weather. President Eaton stated he had discussed this matter with member Randy Soelberg and Randy informed him that an engineer would likely be needed to design the cover if over a specified size for safety reasons, a requirement of the City of Woodburn. Discussion ensued with mixed opinions as to the need for such a cover. Russ Krussow pointed out that the balls hit on the range would still need to be picked up, regardless of the weather. Russ would not be in favor of such a cover if cost prohibitive. Allan Lindberg stated he would like to see a cover installed to allow for practice during inclement weather. President Eaton will involve the Association's House Director if the membership agrees that this matter should be pursued.

Vice President's Report: VP Will Abshire stated that he had just spoken to GM Tom Staskiewicz just prior to our Meeting regarding the proposed eligibility requirements to participate in the Oregon Trail Program. VP Abshire recommended that the Greens Committee be involved in the approval or amending of the proposed eligibility requirements as written. A discussion ensued with Allan Lindberg pointing out that when the Oregon Trail Program was first initiated it was meant to be used only by those residents of our community who had paid the annual dues for golf. Fred Bourne stated that many of the golf courses in the Oregon Trail Program would welcome participation by any resident of our community, not just those who had paid annual golf dues. Jim Worley verified that currently only golfers who have paid the annual golf dues are eligible to participate in the program. The eligibility requirements will be a topic of discussion in the next Greens Committee Meeting. VP Abshire then questioned who determines the placement of the "drop areas" on the 9th hole? Apparently, the drop areas are marked by the golf maintenance crew as directed by the Golf Course Superintendent and our Golf Pro. VP Abshire then asked which drop area should be utilized when a ball is located within the blue lines near the cart barns. Len Westphal responded that the drop area to be used is based on the closest drop area to where the ball lies within the blue lined area.

Treasurer's Report: Treasurer Allan Lindberg provided the following report: Opening Balance: $4,102.24; Deposits of $405.00; Expenses of $1,175.00 (golf balls with our Logo totaled $300; OGA fees paid for 29 members @ $35.00 each totaled $875.00); Ending Balance: $3,332.24.

Secretary's Report: Secretary Chuck Johnson stated he had nothing to report.
COMMITTEE REPORTS:

OGA: President Eaton, also our OGA Representative, stated that the OGA has partnered with the Affinity Travel Agency to provide golf travel packages. The OGA has established a "Refer a Friend Program" wherein if a member refers a friend to the OGA who then becomes an OGA member, the member providing the referral is provided a free round of golf at the OGA along with the friend who has joined the OGA. Other rewards offered in the program would be $25 off certain events held at the OGA or $25 off the cost of the Passport Program. President Eaton then reported that there is a new teaching and assistant pro at the OGA by the name of Tyler Morris. OGA is also currently hiring starters and hosts at their golf course.

Handicap: Chairman Allan Lindberg has requested that all members place their score cards in the white box during an audit period of June 1 thru June 15. On occasion, the Handicap Chair and Co-Chair will be making this request for audit purposes. Many of the members present were not aware of this request, but will now comply until the end of the audit date of June 15.

Greens: Committee Representative Fred Bourne stated that the arborvitae trees have been installed on the left side of the 11th hole. At a later date, planting will be completed. The installation of protective netting on hole number 9 is still under discussion. The stump grinding has been scheduled and the front 9 is closed this week for punching/sanding and the back 9 will be closed next week. The roots on the cart path have been ground down, making the cart path surface much smoother. Drainage issues on holes 12 and 17 are yet to be addressed.

Mixed Tournaments: Chairman Len Westphal requested volunteers to set up tables in the breeze way at 7 a.m. for this Saturday’s Mixed Tournament. Will Abshere and Mike Archer volunteered for this task. Servers have been trained/certified pursuant to OLCC requirements. Lorrie Cox of Woodburn Homes Realty has agreed to sponsor the July 4th Mixed Tournament. We thank her for now sponsoring two of our Mixed Tournaments. Chairman Westphal stated that entry fees for all Mixed Tournaments after the July 4th Tournament will be raised from $16 to $18 per participant. Also in future Mixed Tournaments, there will be no beverage tickets issued. It was pointed out that during the last Mixed Tournament dinner the announcement of winners in the various flights were given while people were in line for dinner, making it difficult to hear the announcement. It was recommended that the announcement of winners be given either before dinner begins or after everyone has gone thru the dinner line and returned to their table. Chairman Westphal stated that he had difficulty with our sound system and it was recommended that he consult with Walt VanRheen regarding problems with the system.

Rules: Chairman Ron Hansen discussed several rules regarding proper identification of a golf ball, including how the ball is lifted and replaced to identify said ball. During Match Play playing the wrong ball results in loss of that hole. In Stroke Play, playing the wrong ball results in a 2 stroke penalty.

Sunshine: Chairman Ron Gripenstraw reported that he sent a card to Virgil Burk regarding a medical issue. He will be sending out two cards this month as follows: Vern Hamilton, medical issue, and Jim Taylor, medical issue.

Membership: Chairman Stan Hiller stated that golfers paying the annual golf dues is about ten less than one year ago.

Publicity: Chairman Will Abshere had nothing to report.

Door Prizes: Chairman Gene Stiles was absent.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS: Stan Hiller inquired as to voucher money not claimed by men golfers at the end of a calendar year. He was informed that in a past Meeting the Men’s Golf Club voted to have the unclaimed voucher money returned to the Men’s Golf Club Treasurer for deposit in our account.

NEW BUSINESS: President Eaton verified that the proper planting of the arborvitae will be completed in the near future. The upcoming Spring Handicap will qualify the top 32 players to play in the annual Match Play Tournament. Handicap Co-Chair Clint Hansen stated that during the Match Play Tournament, handicaps will be capped at 36 and that participants must properly fill out their score cards to prevent disqualification. Fred Bourne, a member of the End of Watch and Harvest Invitational Tournament Committees, made the following motions: Motion 1: I move that the Men’s Golf Club provide the funds to purchase the insurance for a $5,000 hole-in-one for the End of Watch Tournament, a cost of $194, motion seconded by Will Abshere. Following discussion, the motion was approved with only one nay vote. Motion 2: I move that the Men’s Golf Club purchase a new golf bag at the cost of $135 to be given as a prize at the Harvest Invitational Tournament. Motion seconded by Stan Hiller. Following discussion, Jim Worley stated that he would personally provide the new golf bag; thus, this motion was tabled. Motion 3: I move that the Men’s Golf Club provide the funds to purchase the insurance for a $5,000 hole-in-one for the Harvest Invitational Tournament, a cost of $194. Motion seconded by Ken Bourne. Following discussion, the motion was passed by majority vote of the members present.

CLOSING COMMENTS: Fred Bourne reminded that our Club provided two teams to participate in this year’s fundraiser golf tournament held at the OGA to benefit the Woodburn High School Boys and Girls Golf Teams. Fred stated that the High School golf teams were grateful for our participation and that the Girls Golf Team qualified for the State Tournament, the first time in the history of Girls Golf at Woodburn High School that they were able to qualify and play in said Tournament. Clint Hansen stated that the Santiam Golf Course in Stayton has a quality USGA sign at the first hole and he would like our course to install a similar sign. Fred Bourne reported that the End of Watch Golf Tournament to be held on Saturday, August 12th, is a Correctional Peace Officer Fundraiser, with the $40 per person entry fee ($50 per person for guests) going directly to raise funds for disabled officers and/or families of officers who lost their life in the line of duty. Chuck Johnson stated that he had written an article to be published in the next News & Views wherein he appealed to the Ladies Golf Club, the Mixed Tournament Committee, the Friday Funnies, and the Sundowners Group to allow all ladies to play from the new forward tees as soon as the rating of these new tees is received from the OGA.

Closing: President Eaton moved to adjourn the Meeting, seconded by Bob Price, the motion approved, and the Meeting was adjourned at 11:20 a.m.

NOTE: OUR NEXT GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING WILL BE HELD IN THE DINING HALL AT 10 AM ON WEDNESDAY, JULY 5, 2017.

Rose-A-Rama Ladies Golf Tournament Highlights: Wine, Roses & Friends

by Dorothy Monnier

The annual Rose-A-Rama Tournament for the 32nd year was held in conjunction with the Portland Rose Parade. The purpose of the tournament was for our lady golfers to invite a friend to participate in this fun-packed event. In addition to their individual winnings this year, between raffle prizes, purchasing mulligans, a free putt, 50/50 drawing, closest to the line, closest to the pin, and longest drive, all ladies went home with huge smiles and winnings.

In spite of a very cold rainy beginning, the rain finally ceased and a fun time was had by all. Some years the challenge has been the heat but this year it was the rain and the cold. The lesson here is that you cannot keep a good golfer off the course. Love the challenge whatever it may be.

The full field of golfers maintained a lively pace and came into the auditorium on time for an outstanding lunch of Chicken Cordon Bleu, blueberry & lettuce salad, mashed potatoes and a delicious slice of lemon chiffon cake. A huge thanks goes to Country Cottage for their usual quality of preparing this exceptional luncheon.

Each tee box was decorated with roses and some holes had cute creative themes that were enjoyed by our members and their guests. There have been many positive comments about the fun that was enjoyed by all who golfed, and this year we had new members and new guests who had never participated in this event. Now all we need is for some of our new members to step forward and assume the role of the committee in putting together this wonderful event.

The committee this year consisted of Carol Bettendorff, Dorothy Monnier, Joanne Delnick, Diana Meithof, Sharon Hoyt and Gloria Bourne who assumed an additional role as photographer assisting Ken Leonard. Ken has taken our pictures for years and the ladies love collecting a memory of the fun they have had at this event.

To all of the volunteers who make this event so successful we say “Thank You”. Without your help we would never get all the raffle prizes, tables set up and decorated, breakfast ready, and all the husbands who so willing give of their time. I know I will undoubtedly forget someone so please accept my apologies. I would like to recognize these volunteers: Ken Bourne, Larry Hoyt, Robert Parks, Russ Krussow, Nancy Reed, Jeanne Hutchinson, Kathy Holland, Mary Schueler, Vicki Hibberd, Marilyn Dykes, and Shirley Boysal.

We love our three sponsors: Woodburn Homes Realty, Legacy Financial and Marquis Physical Therapy. The several local business establishments who made generous donations: Garden Gallery Iron Works, S&K Nursery, Bauman Farms, Columbia Bank, Sara’s Salon, MAPS Credit Union.

Can You Top This?

by Gini Oliver

Searching through the zucchini patch for a small zucchini, the housekeeper of a friend I had stopped by to visit, discovered a zucchini that had been hiding. She cut it from the vine and brought it into the house.

It was gigantic – a jaw-dropper – and she needed to use both arms to carry it. The size and shape literally took our breath away. My friend quickly cleared a small tiled table in the kitchen on which to place it.

We couldn't believe our eyes as the gargantuan size made it difficult to comprehend. It was surreal, yet authentic. Simultaneously, we burst into laughter, sounding like the cries of hyenas. When our rolls of hilarity subsided, we placed the zucchini on the scales. It weighed in at seven pounds and four ounces! Enough zucchini to make a Texan-style meatloaf!

Chili Cook-off in Texas

by anonymous

This is an actual account as relayed to paramedics at a chili cook-off in Texas. Note: Please take time to read this slowly. If you pay attention to the first two judges, the reaction of the third judge is even better. For those of you who have lived in Texas, you know how true this is. They actually have a Chili Cook-off about the time Halloween comes around. It takes up a major portion of a parking lot at the San Antonio City Park. Judge #3 was an inexperienced Chili taster named Frank, who was visiting from Springfield, Illinois.

Frank: "Recently, I was honored to be selected as a judge at a chili cook-off. The original person called in sick at the last moment and I happened to be standing there at the judge's table, asking for directions to the Coors Light truck, when the call came in. I was assured by the other two judges (Native Texans) that the chili wouldn't be all that spicy; and besides, they told me I could have free beer during the tasting, so I accepted and became Judge #3."

Here are the scorecard notes from the event:

CHILI # 1 - MIKE'S MANIAC MONSTER CHILI

- Judge # 1 - A little too heavy on the tomato. Amusing kick.
- Judge # 2 - Nice, smooth tomato flavor. Very mild.
- Judge # 3 (Frank) - Holy crap, what the hell is this stuff? You could remove dried paint from your driveway. Took me two beers to put the flames out. I hope that's the worst one. These Texans are crazy.

CHILI # 2 - AUSTIN'S AFTERBURNER CHILI

- Judge # 1 - Smoky, with a hint of pork. Slight jalapeno tang.
- Judge # 2 - Exciting BBQ flavor, needs more peppers to be taken seriously.
- Judge # 3 - Keep this out of the reach of children. I'm not sure what I'm supposed to taste besides pain. I had to wave off two people who wanted to give me the Heimlich maneuver. They had to rush in more beer when they saw the look on my face.

CHILI # 3 - FRED'S FAMOUS BURN DOWN THE BARN CHILI

- Judge # 1 - Excellent firehouse chili. Great kick.
- Judge # 2 - A bit salty, good use of peppers.
- Judge # 3 - Call the EPA. I've located a uranium spill. My nose feels like I have been snorting Drano. Everyone knows the routine by now. Get me more beer before I ignite. Barmaid pounded me on the back, now my backbone is in the front part of my chest. I'm getting s-faced from all of the beer.

CHILI # 4 - BUBBA'S BLACK MAGIC

- Judge # 1 - Black bean chili with almost no spice. Disappointing.
- Judge # 2 - Hint of lime in the black beans. Good side dish for fish or other mild foods, not much of a chili.
- Judge # 3 - I felt something scraping across my tongue, but was unable to taste it. Is it possible to burn out taste buds? Sally, the beer maid, was standing behind me with fresh refills. This 300 lb. woman is starting to look HOT... just like this nuclear waste I'm eating! Is chili an aphrodisiac?

CHILI # 5 - LISA'S LEGAL LIP REMOVER

- Judge # 1 - Meaty, strong chili. Cayenne peppers freshly ground, adding considerable kick. Very impressive.
- Judge # 2 - Chili using shredded beef, could use more tomato. Must admit the cayenne peppers make a strong statement.
- Judge # 3 - My ears are ringing, sweat is pouring off my forehead and I can no longer focus my eyes. I farted, and four people behind me needed paramedics. The contestant seemed offended when I told her that her chili had given me brain damage. Sally saved my tongue from bleeding by pouring beer directly on it from the pitcher. I wonder if I'm burning my lips off. It really ticks me off that the other judges asked me to stop screaming. Screw them.

CHILI # 6 - VERA'S VERY VEGETARIAN VARIETY

- Judge # 1 - Thin yet bold vegetarian variety chili. Good balance of spices and peppers.
- Judge # 2 - The best yet. Aggressive use of peppers, onions, garlic. Superb.
- Judge # 3 - My intestines are now a straight pipe filled with gaseous, sulfuric flames. I crapped on myself when I farted, and I'm worried it will eat through the chair. No one seems inclined to stand behind me except that Sally. Can't feel my lips anymore. I need to wipe my butt with a snow cone.

CHILI # 7 - SUSAN'S SCREAMING SENSATION CHILI

- Judge # 1 - A mediocre chili with too much reliance on canned peppers.
- Judge # 2 - Ho hum, tastes as if the chef literally threw in a can of chili peppers at the last moment. *I should take note that I am worried about Judge #3. He appears to be in a bit of distress as he is cursing uncontrollably.
- Judge # 3 - You could put a grenade in my mouth, pull the pin, and I wouldn't feel a thing. I've lost sight in one eye, and the world sounds like it is made of rushing water. My shirt is covered with chili, which slid unnoticed out of my mouth. My pants are full of lava to match my shirt. At least during the autopsy, they'll know what killed me. I've decided to stop breathing it's too painful. Screw it; I'm not getting any oxygen anyway. If I need air, I'll just suck it in through the 4-inch hole in my stomach.

CHILI # 8 - BIG TOM'S TOENAIL CURLING CHILI

- Judge # 1 - The perfect ending, this is a nice blend chili. Not too bold but spicy enough to declare its existence.
- Judge # 2 - This final entry is a good, balanced chili. Neither mild nor hot. Sorry to see that most of it was lost when Judge #3 farted, passed out, fell over and pulled the chili pot down on top of himself. Not sure if he's going to make it. Poor feller, wonder how he'd have reacted to really hot chili?
- Judge # 3 - No report.

4. Come back to the resource table and tell us your favorite song for our Karaoke Coffee Hour coming in the fall.
5. Because of the auditorium roof repair, the Wellness Fair date has been moved to September 8th from 1-3 p.m.
6. The Veterans’ Day Celebration will be on November 9th. Please bring a picture, with your full name, and if you served any active duty. All pictures will be returned. Bring to office or resource table at Coffee Hour. We only have four pictures so far.
7. 100+ people have attended coffee each week this past month.
8. 256 people attended the Pancake Breakfast. The event went very well and money was earned. This money will be used to update the card room.
9. Remember this is a complaint driven community. If you are upset about something, fill out a complaint form from the office. Nothing changes unless a complaint is filed. This complaint is filed in complete privacy. No one knows it was from you. An investigation of the complaint will take place and if any rules are in violation action will be taken to correct the infraction.
10. To protect yourself and all neighbors, you MUST make a report to Construction Contractors Board 503-378-4621 ext. 4900 or Oregon Landscape Contractors 503-986-6561 if your complaint is for substandard work that was done in and around your home. Failure to make a report to these State agencies offers no protection for your neighbors or new residents who may unknowingly hire companies who do substandard work but have not had official complaints issued against them.

11. Have you noticed the new information marketing panels around the clubhouse? They are rectangular TVs. Many hours of work made these possible. We really are coming into the new millennium. Good for us! Guess old dogs can learn new tricks!

12. Summer is coming – at last. Planning any vacations or getaways? Be sure to give a house key to a trusted neighbor, so they can watch your house for you. Give them phone numbers to reach you or relatives if something happens to your house. No one knows the neighborhood better, and the comings and goings, than a retired neighbor. What if you close the car door and your purse is in it with your keys? That neighbor can at least get you into your house.

A Perfect Husband

by Angie Brady

A perfect husband – well, next to perfect – exists only in fantasy. Sorry, fellas.

Women are perceived as near nonstop talkers; therefore, the near perfect husband is a glorious listener, and holds his wife in close embrace when her hopes, even dreams, are squashed.

He encourages her to "talk it out" and even cry. However, when she's vented enough, he dries her eyes and tells her to "let it go."

Always neat and clean, he smells good, unless working hard. Then he keeps his distance.

This perfect husband admires his wife's taste, especially in choosing a husband. Her friends approve of her choice of husband, and his friends approve of his choice of wife. It's complicated stuff.

Mr. Near Perfection is well informed on any topic which interests his wife. He respects her point of view even if it differs from his own. This man is kind to children, tolerating their antics graciously.

Mr. Perfection (well, nearly) discourages gossip. "Do you know the facts?" he asks quietly.

This handsome of all husbands looks as much at home in jeans as tuxedo. He wears a suit and tie with elan.

Hubby is equally at home in the kitchen, garage or bedroom. Whether cooking chowder, fixing the car or cuddling, he's an expert. He smiles easily and laughs heartily, even at his own foibles. Gallows humor doesn't offend him, nor do Norwegian jokes.

Sincere in his faith, he respects other religions. He's smart but doesn't flaunt it. He even enjoys the movies!

Don't you wish you knew this man?

Gossip

by anonymous

I have the occasion to confront some gossip and have some thoughts that I've learned over many years, thoughts that many have been learned and somehow forgotten:

The joy of gossip is that eventually the ones doing the gossiping become the ones gossiped about. It’s not so much joy after all!

Gossip is usually negative and involves only one side of a story, and it is often one side of many emotional sides of the issue. Hence the importance of not spreading gossip without confirmation or inquiry as to the whole story. Google has many, many definitions, here are a couple:

1. A conversation involving malicious chatter or rumors about other people.
2. Casual or unconstrained conversation or reports about other people, typically involving details that are not confirmed as being true.

When neighbors or acquaintances begin to tell you negative, nasty, or mean spirited stories about their neighbors, just realize that you are only hearing a portion of the story, and it may well be inflamed by a lot of emotion that has not been expressed. The best response is to just not repeat it, you are better than that.

There is an old wives tale that is still true today, "If you can’t say something nice about someone then... don’t say anything at all." How much better it would be if we all followed that advice. Be good to yourself and to your neighbors.

A Perfect Wife

by Angie Brady

A perfect wife comes in all ages, sizes, shapes, educational and financial levels. She may be blonde, brunette, or redhead; she may even have gray hair. The fact of the matter is she could be anyone – you, even me.

I suspect I've met dozens of perfect wives although each would hasten to inform me she is imperfect. The world capitalizes on a woman's shortcomings, especially her appearance. Therefore, a perfect wife sets an impossible standard of beauty for herself.

Strange thing is that most wives aren't beautiful in a classic movie star sense. However, they might have a magical, mystical face. Her eyes can be any hue – brown, green or blue, which light up expressively when her beloved approaches.

The perfect wife listens to her husband by the hour. She listens, leaning forward in interest. She engages her whole being and makes well-timed comments which encourage further dialogue.

A perfect wife is not jealous. She welcomes her husband's interest in other women, confident that only his eyes will roam. Far from "joined at the hip" to hubby, a perfect wife lives an interesting life of her own, involved in a career, volunteer work, or an adventuresome retirement.

She is comfortable to live with, whether she is a stay-at-home working wife or a working wife in the community, a mother or a non-mother. Quick to laugh, slow to anger, she attracts people as bears to honey. Able to laugh at her own foibles, she even shares laughter at her husband's foibles.

With a style all her own, Mrs. Perfect is confident and caring but all perfect wives are risk takers. After all, picking a next-to-perfect husband is the greatest risk of all. Agree, women?

When I think about it, perhaps any next-to-perfect husband would settle for a next-to-perfect wife. Voila! A perfect match.

Word Play

by Donna Wood

Not all words make it into the dictionary This reminded me of the Washington Post’s yearly challenge of finding new meanings for old words. Some of the winners are:

- LYMPH – To walk with a lisp.
- BALDERDASH – A rapidly receding hairline.
- NEGLIGENT – Absentmindedly answering the door when wearing only a nightgown.
- COFFEE – The person upon whom one coughs.
- FLABBERGASTED – Appalled by discovering how much weight one has gained.
- ABDICATE – To give up all hope of ever having a flat stomach.
- POKEMON – A Rastafarian proctologist.

The Washington Post also has a Mensa contest which invites readers to take any word from the dictionary, alter it by adding, subtracting or changing one letter and supplying a new definition. Here are some of the winners:

- CASHTRATION – The act of buying a house, which renders the subject financially impotent for an indefinite period of time.
- INTAXICATION – Euphoria at getting a tax refund, which lasts until you realize it was your money to start with.
- REINTARNATION - Coming back to life as a hillbilly.
- GLIBIDO – All talk and no action.
- INOCULATTE – To take coffee intravenously when you are running late.
- SARCHASM – The gulf between the author of sarcastic wit and the person who doesn’t get it.

Summer Winds

by Dagmar Dettinger

On summer winds up in the sky,
The swallow feeds and twitters.
It catches bugs that caught a ride,
Just like herself, on winds from far and hither.
And tiny little spider groups,
Their strings of nets as sails,
Rise up so gently on wind's scoops.
I'm sorry for the snails...
