

Newspaper Carriers Needed

by Vicki Spencer

Anyone wishing to volunteer and do something for Woodburn Estates & Golf and meet new people, please consider delivering the News & Views. It's only twice a month – the 2nd and 4th Fridays (papers are usually ready for delivery the day before.)

For the most part, the weather is pretty good considering how bad it could be – like the East Coast was this last winter. We have two routes that need coverage.

One is Marie Worley's route on S. Cascade Drive. It goes from Hayes Street to Santiam on both sides. There are 49 papers. Will has done this route twice and it has probably taken one-half hour to do. Marie is having major foot problems, and we need someone to take her route until she can come back or has to give it up entirely. That is yet to be determined.

The other route is on Umpqua Road from Vanderbeck Lane to Newport Way, inclusive of the Umpqua Place cul de sac. This route is only 44 papers long. This was Ron Ramsey's route. He is still working and isn't available on Thursdays and Fridays; and he realizes how cranky we get if our paper isn't there as soon as possible for the sales and events.

So please call myself Vicki Spencer at 503-982-2027 or Kathy Hiller at the News & Views office at 971-338-6131.

Ahhhhhhhhh! Springtime!

256 E Clackamas Circle

by Kathy Hiller

With the great weather that has been occurring more and more often, it seems like the right time to share the beautiful gardens and yards to be found all around our community. Lots of our folks were outside, weeding, mowing, and spreading bark dust on the Friday I took these shots. I had planned to make this into a contest, but I didn't get to every street before my camera ran out of battery. So I'll just share with you a few of the lovely yards that I captured. To see more pictures, turn to pages 6 and 7 of this issue of News & Views. Don't forget to stop and smell the flowers!

Golf Car Drivers, Take Note

This is an example of what can happen. This is not a picture of an actual crash in or around Woodburn Estates & Golf.

by Kathy Hiller

Our General Manager, Sharon Schaub, asked me to alert drivers of golf cars that vehicles traveling on Rainier Road and W. Hayes Street have the Right of Way. It seems that in the excitement of their game, some golfers forget this and zoom across the street in their golf cars, expecting cars and trucks to stop for them. Luckily, some vehicles do stop, but it cannot be depended on. A friend of mine, who asks not to be identified, was traveling on Rainier when a golf car coming out of the tunnel nearly broadsided her car.

We would hate to see anyone get hurt like this photo shows. Cars and golf cars do not mix well. Will we have to post stop signs for the golfers, reminding them that cross traffic does not stop?

Nancy Dale in Dodge City, Kansas

by Nancy Dale, with editorial comments by Kathy Hiller

Last year [2014] I took a 3-week driving vacation across the US. At the time, I wasn’t really acquainted with anyone in Woodburn Estates & Golf, so I didn’t follow through with submitting any pictures of my trip to the News & Views. I wish I had now. It’s too late now to do it for me, [Oh, no, it’s not!]; but I think making a campaign to see who can take the News & Views to the strangest places (or the farthest distance) would be fun. I think I’ll stick a copy the News & Views in my luggage just in case I take off somewhere, then I won’t leave it behind.

[Great idea, Nancy! As you can see, we are using one of your pictures for today’s issue. We will gladly publish other photos – with or without the News & Views in the shot. Of course, we would prefer that our newspaper was included, but we are not going to be sticklers on that. Happy traveling, everyone. Be sure to share your travels with us when you get back home! Ed.]

A Great Big Thank You!

by Glen Barlow

The Networking Club of Woodburn (NCOW) wishes to extend a great BIG thank you to all those who participated in the food drive last month. Because of your generosity, we were able to collect 3,885 pounds of food for the AWARE Food Bank. That is more than has been received for the last several years.

The Networking Club of Woodburn is a non-profit association of businesses, organized for the purpose of serving the local community by encouraging and promoting integrity and quality among local businesses, and meeting various needs in our community through charitable and service projects. One of our unique aspects is that we only select one kind of business at a time to be represented. If you would like your business to be a part of a great networking organization, please call either Joe or myself at one of the numbers below.

NCOW will also be organizing Shred Day again later this year. Please look for more information in the News & Views regarding dates and location for this very popular event. We are looking for sponsors, so if you have a small business and would like to be considered as a sponsor for this year’s event, you can contact Joe Strubhar at 503-981-3221, or Glen Barlow at 503-810-0207.

Again, thank you for making this year’s food drive so successful!

Bike Club News

by Richard Trost

Rides will start at 9 a.m. beginning April 21, continuing through the summer. As always, we meet on Tuesday and Thursday mornings by the flag pole.

Riding through the winter has been hit or miss, but we have managed a few rides. Joe, one of the Bike Club founders, bought a trike this fall after experiencing physical issues riding his road bike, and has put over 1,000 miles on it to date in spite of the less than ideal winter conditions. All of which proves that you can’t keep a good man down!

Meanwhile, John rode 101 miles on April 9, which puts him ahead of the class. I rode the first 40 miles with him and needed two days to recover which all goes to prove that even weenies can get out and ride. Riding is good exercise and a good way to shed those winter pounds. Join us!

Metaphysical Book Club Meeting

by Robert Ten Eyck

On April 29, at 10:30 a.m. in the Blue Room, Rev. Madge Pinkerdof will give a presentation including the history and theory of spiritual drumming. Everyone is invited to enjoy this interesting meeting.

Music Makers

by Cathy Williams

The Music Makers will meet on May 4 at 1:30 p.m. Roaming Ralph Kruse is back presiding as president. If you need to call him, his cell phone is 509-322-2119. Gerry Cooley will decorate for us in May. Glenda McLean and Pat Dolan will provide cookies.

We will discuss our upcoming June potluck. Ralph and his talented wife Doris have agreed to cook the meat. How blessed we are! Find out what they plan to cook, and start planning which complimentary side dish you can bring.

New to us: Terry and Sherry Lowells will come from Salem to sing and play guitar. They have been doing this for 15 years. You’ll hear Bluegrass, Country, and Folk music from the 50’s, 60’s, and 70’s; and recognize songs from Peter, Paul, and Mary, John Denver, and others. Sounds great! Give them a big welcome on Monday, May 4 at 1:30 p.m. in the Auditorium. Ya’all come!

St. Monica’s Circle

by Ryllis Linday

St. Monica’s Circle met on April 6. President Becky Butts led us in the Pledge of Allegiance and prayers. Barbara Campbell read the minutes and gave her Treasurer’s Report. Rita Girard will take notes for the Secretary’s Report since Katy Taylor was absent. Becky announced that she and Rita served rolls in Rubis Hall in March, and Pauline Dionne and Marilyn Conway will take over in April. We need helpers for May 17.

Becky and Rita will visit Leona Weakland and Helen Barns. Eva Halter needs our prayers also. They were three former members. Gertrude Rees announced that Marilyn Conway and Becky Butts would do linens the month of April; Toni Perry and Rita Girard would linens for the month of May. Ryllis Linday is on the Nominating Committee for the officers for the 2015-2016 year.

Katy Stuart is the St. Luke’s teacher who will be bringing her 2nd grade students to our meeting to entertain us. We promise this will be an exciting meeting.

The meeting was adjourned, and lunch was served by Rita Girard. She had decorated each table with tulips and an Easter theme, and she decorated the food table with a large colorful bouquet. The menu included ham, special potatoes, celery and carrot sticks, homemade rolls, and pickles. For dessert there were lemon bars, chocolate squares served in egg cartons, and pineapple cake with cream. Coffee and tea was included. Lunch concluded at 11:45 a.m.

Please join us for our next meeting on May 4, at 10 a.m. in the Dining Hall.

Woodburn Estates Dance and Social Club Spring Concert

by Bill Coleman, Chairman

We've had to wait an entire year; but finally the Northwest Symphonic Orchestra lead by Maestro Gary Lee Parks, featuring the finest musicians from Oregon and Washington, will be returning to Woodburn Estates & Golf for a public concert geared to appeal to the entire family. Hosted by the Woodburn Estates Dance and Social Club, the free concert will be held on Friday, May 1, at 7:00 p.m. at the Woodburn Estates & Golf Auditorium, 1776 Country Club Road in Woodburn.

Maestro Parks is planning a very diverse program with selections chosen to please all ages and tastes. You may expect to hear: Barber's Adagio for strings; Stravinsky's Danse Infernale+ Berceuse and Finale; Sousa's Circus Gallop Medley (Disney Super Time Medley: Go West); Leroy Anderson: Irish Suite 1 & 2; Lecuona's Malaguena from Andalucia Suite #6; Pucinni's Musetta's Waltz from La Boheme; Respighi's Pines of Rome (Send in the Clowns); Bach's Sheep May Safely Graze; and Tchaikovsky's Sleeping Beauty Waltz.

There will be a short intermission with coffee, punch, water and cookies provided by Peter Dale of Stepstone Construction. The public concert is free of charge, with a freewill offering taken to help defray the costs of the artists.

Woodburn Garden Club

by Gerry Cooley

Ginger of Marquis Therapy will present a program pertinent to keeping fit while gardening. She will share information about body mechanics, modification of garden tools to fit stature and basic information about the spine. This will be held on Tuesday, May 5, at 1 p.m., in the Woodburn Estates & Golf Dining Room. All are welcome. For information, call 503-982-0848.

This will be our last open meeting until Fall. We have a White Elephant sale and potluck in June, but will not meet again for an informational meeting until September. Our membership has grown, and we appreciate the opportunity to let people know what we're about.

Gentle Yoga Classes

by John Porter

I'm John Porter. I have been practicing and teaching yoga for 35 years. I own Pegasus Training and Consulting Company. I have been a teacher and trainer for the past 15 years, providing training for mental health and substance abuse disorder treatment counselors. I have a Masters' Degree in Special Education/Psychology from Texas A & M University, and have lived in Woodburn Estates & Golf for 2 1/2 years. I'm attempting to retire and would like to fill some of my time with an activity that I find useful in my everyday life.

Gentle Yoga is a great class for beginners, baby boomers, active seniors and anyone interested in exploring a gentle practice. This class includes basic breathing exercises, as well as a variety of foundational postures (standing, seated, and on the floor). The intention of this yoga practice is to cultivate an internal meditative experience while stretching and recharging the body.

It offers the opportunity to maintain flexibility and mobility while providing stretches and simple yoga postures. The activities are designed for those who currently have sufficient mobility to do floor exercises as well as standing and balancing exercises.

Classes could be weekly or twice weekly (Mon/Wed or Tue/Thu) at 9 a.m. I would not charge for teaching, but I have found if people are required to register and pay a nominal fee, like $5, they seem more likely to commit to attending. Participants would need a yoga mat and other props to support floor exercises. It would be best to use an area which is carpeted. Classes would be 45 minutes in duration with a warm up at the beginning and a cool down at the end of the exercises.

Signup sheets are posted on or near the News & Views office door. We could begin in May if there is sufficient interest, and expand to offer classes to accommodate those interested.

Men’s Golf Club Meeting

Estates Men’s Golf Club
General Meeting
April 7, 2015

The meeting was called to order by President Fred Bourne at 10 a.m. in the Dining Hall, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance.

Roll Call: A quorum was established. Officers and Committee Chairmen/Committee Members present were: Fred Bourne, Len Westphal, Chuck Johnson, Stan Hiller, Bob Price, Steve Hobson, and Gene Stiles. A total of 20 members attended the meeting.

President’s Report: President Bourne reported that aerification of the golf course should begin shortly, dependent on the weather. President Bourne then stated that the official flyer for the “End of Watch Golf Tournament” scheduled for August 15, 2015, has been printed and will be posted. The tournament will be publicized in the News & Views. Our members may also participate in the tournament with a reduced entry fee of $40.00. President Bourne stated that the first computer pick format of the year for our Men’s Golf Club Thursday Play went well. This popular format will be used each month and instead of donuts prior to play, the Club may provide hot dogs following play. President Bourne then briefly spoke of the recent Fund Raiser Golf Tournament held at the OGA Golf Course. It was reported that $3,000 was raised for the Woodburn High School golf team and the tournament actually turned away a team; thus, a full field participated in the tournament. Our Club provided three teams of four players each.

Vice President’s Report: VP Len Westphal had nothing to report.

Treasurer’s Report: Treasurer Jim Worley was absent with notice. President Bourne reported the current balance of the Club’s funds as provided by Treasurer Worley as follows: as of April 7, 2015, the balance of the Club’s funds was $2,728.02.

Secretary’s Report: Secretary Chuck Johnson reported that member Lon Reed had given him a “Thank You” card in response to a “Get Well” card sent to him by the Men’s Golf Club. Lon asked that the card be read at today’s Meeting. Unfortunately, Secretary Johnson had a “senior moment” and left the card at home. Upon his return home, he opened the card from Lon Reed which read: “Thank you for the Get Well card. Surgery has been a challenge. Look forward to getting back to golf soon. Lon.”

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Sunshine: Chairman Bob Price reported that he sent out appropriate cards to the following individuals: Dick Koessel...Recovering from a stroke...Felix Morales...Unspecified medical issue...Lon Reed...Hernia surgery...Barbara Westphal...Recent fall...Betty Brendle...On behalf of her recently deceased husband, John...Paul Eaton...Continued medical issues, internal bleeding.

Membership: Chairman Stan Hiller reported that as of today we have 204 golfers who have paid their annual fee. Stan attended a recent New Member Meeting and reported that at least three new residents reported that they are golfers. Stan encouraged our members to send articles to the News & Views, and his wife and Editor, Kathy Hiller, is always looking for articles to fill the publication. Stan also stated that all of the Association activities are now being publicized in the News & Views.

Unfinished Business: Nothing to report.

New Business: Nothing to report.

Closing Comments: Russ Krussow stated that we should thank the golf course maintenance crew for their work on our course, specifically mowing closely around the yardage markers found on the sprinkler heads. Gene Stiles appealed to our members to always post all scores to ensure that a valid handicap is established and avoid cheating via “sandbagging”. A discussion then ensued relative to when scores should be posted (practice rounds, partial rounds, etc.). Kurt Benson reiterated that our members should post accurate scores for each round. Len Westphal stated that sometimes a new member posts scores played on our course, but the computer does not recognize that the new member is posting for our course and instead posts the score for their old course. This issue will be brought to the attention of the Men’s Golf Club Handicap Chairman, Clint Hansen, upon his return. Russ Krussow then inquired if the Men’s Golf Club had ever considered placing a cap on handicaps. He stated that he was aware of some Men’s Golf Clubs that limit handicaps to a 36 max. Chuck Johnson commented that when he lived in Northern California, the Northern Californian Golf Association placed a men’s handicap max at 36 and women’s handicap max at 45. President Bourne stated that establishing a maximum handicap had previously been discussed, but he had no objection to revisiting the subject in the future.

Closing: President Bourne moved that our meeting be adjourned, motion seconded, approved, and the meeting was adjourned at 10:40 a.m.

Chuck Johnson, Secretary – Minutes approved by President Fred Bourne.

Sundowners Golf News

by Allan Lindberg

Sundowners Golf will be starting its regular playing season the first Monday in June, which this year will be June 1. Sundowners is a 9-hole golf competition that plays each Monday through the last Monday in September, which this year will be on September 28. All players are welcome.

The entry fees for the entire season will be $5.00, with all money collected to go for awards at the season end banquet. Sorry, no discounts for late comers.

Each week each player must sign in at the Golf Pro Shop to pay your daily golf green fees if you are not a paid golfer. Then be at the Gazebo by 3:30 p.m. to draw for a playing partner. This is a shotgun start with play starting at 4:00 p.m.

Each week each winning team member is awarded 2 points for first place and 1 point each for second place for low net and 2 points for first place and 1 point each for second place for fewest putts. Points are accumulated throughout the season for end of season awards. Weekly results and standings will be posted in the golf lounge.

Follow the rules of the course regarding the use of the cart paths or fairways and rules for winter and summer play. Individual handicaps are not required to participate. A modified Callaway Handicap system is used for each weekly event. Details of the modified Callaway Handicap System will be provided each week for those new or unfamiliar with this handicap system.

This year, as in past years, players can, after the game, get together at one of the local restaurants for dinner and/or libations (Dutch treat) – and of course bragging of those spectacular shots or pains and sorrow for those missed. Any and all are welcome whether playing or not.

Questions about Sundowners Golf, call Allan Lindberg 503-804-3982. This is a fun competition and a great way to get acquainted with players of all abilities.

Fundraising Golf Tournament

by Fred Bourne

The Woodburn High School Golf Team held a fundraising tournament at the OGA golf course on March 28, 2015, to raise funds so their team could attend an event in central Oregon: Eagle Crest. Our Men’s Club co-sponsored three teams to play in the April tournament. Team #1 was Len Westphal, Alton Sharrow, Russ Krussow, and Kurtis Benson. Team #2 was Allan Lindberg, Dennis Wichert, Glenn Brockmeyer, and Chuck Johnson. Team #3 was Fred Bourne, Roy Quimby, Don Gienger, and Paul Eaton. The weather was fantastic and everybody had a good time. They fed us lunch and gave away some very good raffle prizes. Speaking of raffle prizes, the grand prize was a Leupold rangefinder won by Fred Bourne. (I had a great time.) The field was full and raised $3,000 for the team. We hope to do it again next year.

Attention Walkers, Bicyclists, and Dog Owners

Walkers and bicyclists, please respect the NO TRESPASSING SIGNS at the entrance to the golf course. The only time you may walk on the golf course is when you are PLAYING A ROUND OF GOLF. This means you are pushing a golf cart or carrying a golf bag or driving a golf cart and hitting a golf ball. At no other time are you allowed to walk on the golf course. Walkers and bicyclists will be given one warning, after that the police will be called.

Children are not allowed to play on the golf course, they MUST stay within the property lines of your home.

Dog owners, our local Rule #4 for Members and Guest states in part: “No animals of any sort allowed on the golf course, or in golf cart on the golf course”.

These rules have been set by the Board of Directors for your safety and the safety of your guests. Thanking you in advance for your cooperation.

Be Prepared

by Ryllis Lindsay

At our St. Monica’s Circle meeting on April 6, Rita Girard gave us an in depth report on death. It will help your children if they know what you want done. This is an important subject because we all have to die. Death itself is painless, it’s getting there that is so painful. We shouldn’t be afraid to die.

What to do in preparation for your death:

1. Be prepared each day as if it was your last day, by prayer, etc.
2. Have a current notarized will.
3. Prepare an Advance Care Directive if you do not wish to be put on life support.
4. Prepare a Durable Power of Attorney. This will give someone the ability to make decisions on your behalf if you are declared unable to do so.
5. Pre-plan your funeral. This is easiest through a funeral home, but otherwise discuss it with a family member.
6. Decide whether you wish to be an organ donor.
7. Name someone in your will as your personal representative, and make sure that person has current data regarding your financial and medial information.
8. Prepare an obituary.

Other Information: If you are a veteran, or spouse of a veteran, you can have a burial spot in Willamette National Cemetery free of charge. If you have contacted a funeral home and have a pre-planned funeral, they will arrange a military burial. The Social Security Department will pay the funeral home $250 toward burial expenses.

Joyce Hewitt Saari, Founding Mother

by Gloria Osborn

We hear a lot about “Founding Fathers” but I’m willing to bet that if we looked a little closer we would find just as many “Founding Mothers”. Usually, of course, their names don’t appear in the history books or on the official documents. The truck museum is fortunate to have a founding mother who is still an active member of the organization. Let’s back up a bit and find out how this all came about.

Joyce lives in King City now, but she was born in Portland and remembers fondly the days during World War II when she volunteered at the USO (United Service Organizations) and danced with the sailors whose ships were docking at the port in Portland... she taught them to jitterbug. Certainly it was a time of hardship and anxiety and grief, both here and abroad. Families were torn apart and, sadly, some of them would never be put back together again. So it was a patriotic duty to help the war effort by bringing some relaxation and entertainment to those in the military, and besides that, it was fun for young women like Joyce to meet and dance with all those handsome young men.

It was also a time when there were more opportunities for women in the workplace, and Joyce, who had a business degree, went to work for a business that provided supplies to the military. Later she would become a paralegal and spend 35 years in the legal profession.

She married and had two children with her first husband, but that marriage ended in divorce. It was in 1973 that she married Del Hewitt and began the journey that would put her on course to become a Founding Mother of the truck museum. Del was a former truck driver who then began a business selling truck accessories for big rigs. He used his own plane to make deliveries, but when the rental for hanger space at the Hillsboro Airport became too expensive, he found a 20 acre property in Aurora with a hanger and moved the business there. They also found 16 acres with a 5,000 square foot house on it and moved themselves from. Portland to Aurora as well.

Del had always been interested in old trucks and became president of the local chapter of the American Truck Historical Society. That organization was Joyce’s introduction to the world of trucks and she soon developed an avid interest in them. When a friend asked Del to store a truck that he had just restored, the idea for a museum was born. It took a few years and there were a few misfires, but eventually a deal was made for a 99 year lease at $1 a year for four acres of the 63 acres on a property in Brooks. This property was already the home of a tractor club, but was largely undeveloped at the time. (Now it is the home of 15 different museums.) By 1989 a group of truck enthusiasts had coalesced and were actively working to turn their dreams into reality. That first group consisted of Joyce and Del Hewitt, Ken Self, Judy and Terry Dovre, and Don Butcher. The “reality” was a building 100’ x60’, and the first truck to go on display there was a 1917 Gersix - forerunner of Kenworth. Later, a man in Grants Pass donated an additional six trucks and the Pacific Northwest Truck Museum was on its way to becoming one of the premier museums of its kind in the country.

Now, more than two decades later, the museum has on display between 70 and 75 trucks of all brands, models, and ages. The original building was enlarged to house an office and library, and later two more buildings were added. Because the museum has continued to expand, it has outgrown its space once again, and there are plans to add yet another building to meet its developing needs.

Del Hewitt died in 2004 and Joyce remained a widow for three years. In 2007 she married Arnie Saari, but they were destined to have only four very happy years together before she was once again a widow. Joyce is justly proud of her contributions to the museum, and remembers with pride the early days when she served as secretary to that small founding group. Like any good mother, she still supports her off-spring as it moves into maturity.

[Gloria Osborn lives in Woodburn Estates & Golf, and has kindly given us permission to reprint some of the interesting articles she has written for “The Air Horn”, a publication of the Pacific Northwest Truck Museum in Brooks where she volunteers. This reprint is from January 2014. Ed.]

Thank You

It is a privilege to live in Woodburn Estates & Golf, where neighbors look out for each other, assist each other and are there physically and emotionally. John’s and my “family” have truly been blessed by all of you who walked this journey with us throughout the last 8 years (post-diagnosis), whether it was walking the dog park with John, assisting John in the Golf Cart when he was lost, calling me when it appeared John needed assistance, sitting with or taking John places so I could work, our Country Cottage family who went way above and beyond in helping us, my Thursday Bible Study Prayer Warriors, Mid-Valley Community Church, and Woodburn Greeters. Without each of you, the journey of Dementia (Early Onset, FrontoTemporal) would have been much more difficult, and John would not have had the quality of daily life that he remarkably had. He was a remarkable man, and we were all blessed to be a part of John’s short life.

Some of you have donated money in honor of John. The City of Woodburn and I are working on putting in two (2) permanent picnic-tables and benches in the center of Senior Estates Park (fondly called the Dog Park) with a plaque on them. The plan is to place them for easy movement for the mowers. If any of you would like to donate to this, feel free to contact me. Thank you so much.

Leonard Schmidt's water feature

Leonard's Mystery

by Kathy Hiller

The other day at Coffee Hour, Leonard Schmidt came over to me and asked if I could help him solve a mystery that occurred at his house. He said he had thought he heard something in the early morning, but when he looked outside everything seemed fine. Later, as he was leaving his house, he saw what had probably made the noise. Someone had added a flower to his angel water feature. We both thought it looked good, but he is still wondering which “angel” in our community added the flower to his angel.

I never had an accident before – What should I do?
My car is a mess – the insurance agent wants me to have the work done out of town – with a repair shop I have never heard of before.
Do I have any other choices? Or do I just follow my insurance company like a lost sheep? Who can I talk to about my deductibles?
I'm looking for a familiar – friendly face that I can rely on.
