Who Ya' Gonna Call?

By Karen Linton

I'll bet at least half of you thought to yourself, "Ghostbusters"! Admit it...hahaha. But joking aside, it's important to know who to call when something breaks down or needs replacement or repair. That's when our Woodburn Estates & Golf annual Phone Directory and our N&V newspaper come to the rescue. We have people and companies that pay for advertising in our directory and newspaper—some live in our community, most live or work within a slightly broader area. When we give our business to these companies, we are thanking them for helping to provide information to our members. In turn, they are encouraged to continue advertising with us. Also, you, as a member, can be assured that they will do a good job for a reasonable price. Companies that do not meet our criteria for satisfactory work are not allowed to buy more advertising from us and members are notified not to use their services. As an example of how the Directory works for us, last year my water heater started leaking and I had water standing in my garage and predictably, no hot water. I called around to different plumbers, both here in Woodburn and Salem and even Portland. Every company was two to three weeks before they could even come to diagnose the problem. Then I suddenly remembered the Directory. I called Woodburn Plumbing, one of our advertisers, and explained my dilemma. They came out THE SAME DAY and installed a new water heater and hauled the old one away THE SAME DAY! Their price was also lower than I had been quoted by others. So, the answer to "Who ya' gonna call?" is an advertiser in our N&V paper or directory!

Music Jammers

By Dena Hollod

We will be having two jam sessions in December: December 11 and 18.

No jam session will be held on our normal 4th Sunday which will be December 25 - Christmas Day.

Also, on December 11 we will have our holiday potluck. The jammers group will furnish the ham, turkey, and turkey gravy. Any question on what to bring, call Dena Hollod at 503-989-9187.

We had some of our musicians leave for warmer places. But we got a few more musicians - even a piano player - who is very good. Come join us and listen to the various types of music that are performed. And all that music and a 2:30 pm snack break are all free!!!!

Hot Water Hose Recall

By Vincent Cantwell

BrassCraft, a respected manufacturer of plumbing parts, has issued a recall on a common type of hose used to connect a hot water heater to the plumbing system.

The hose looks like a black hose with brass ends.

The exterior looks like a finely braided rope.

The type of water heater does not matter if it's gas or electric.

It does not matter what size or length of hose installed though ¾ inch is most common.

It does not matter if it "looks" fine.

The recall is for the interior (rubber) hose that fails without notice. Especially if the hose is installed in close proximity to the exhaust flue. They need to be replaced as soon as possible.

All residents should check their hot water heaters to assure that these have not been installed.

Technical specs follow:

Speedi Plumb PLUS Water Heater Connector

Part numbers vary but (ours) were 000382 or BWBO-24 and (the number after the BWBO does not matter).

Winter Equinox

By Connie Doyon

The winter solstice, also called the hibernal solstice, occurs when either of Earth's poles reaches its maximum tilt away from the Sun. This happens twice yearly, once in each hemisphere (Northern and Southern). For that hemisphere, the winter solstice is the day with the shortest period of daylight and longest night of the year, when the Sun is at its lowest daily maximum elevation in the sky. Either pole experiences continuous darkness or twilight around its winter solstice. The opposite event is the summer solstice.

The winter solstice occurs during the hemisphere's winter. In the Northern Hemisphere, this is the December solstice (usually 21st or 22nd December) and in the Southern Hemisphere, this is the June solstice (usually 20th or 21st of June). Although the winter solstice itself lasts only a moment, the term also refers to the day on which it occurs. The term midwinter is also used synonymously with the winter solstice, although it carries other meanings as well. Traditionally, in many temperate regions, the winter solstice is seen as the middle of winter; although today in some countries and calendars it is seen as the beginning of winter. Other names are the "extreme of winter" (Dongzhi), or the "shortest day".

Since prehistory, the winter solstice has been a significant time of year in many cultures and has been marked by festivals and rituals. It marked the symbolic death and rebirth of the Sun; the gradual waning of daylight hours is reversed and begins to grow again. Some ancient monuments such as Newgrange, Stonehenge, and Cahokia Woodhenge are aligned with the sunrise or sunset on the winter solstice.

Out & About

Budget Meeting
New Options

By Karen Linton

At the last City Council meeting, the Street Maintenance supervisor gave a report on the city streets needing the most work. Woodburn Estates had several in that category. Therefore, work will begin as soon as possible repairing:

- Oregon Way from W. Hayes to 953 Oregon Way
- Columbia Drive from W. Hayes to Santiam
- Mulberry Drive @ Lilac Way
- All of Garden Way
- All of Astor Court

The City has now started its annual tree giveaway program. This gives Woodburn homeowners a free tree to plant in their yards. This year there are several selections to choose from. Call the City to get an application or email Emily.duran@ciwoodburn.or.us. Once accepted, you will receive a voucher to take to Al’s Garden Center to get your tree.

Under review now is a 95 lot subdivision called Mill Creek Meadows that is planned on Brown Street.

After receiving a liquor license from the Council, Casa de Caldos, on

Hwy. 99, redecorated and had a grand opening of their bar which is now in their established restaurant. Woodburn Lanes now also has a liquor license.

Installation of a fence around the dog off-leash area has begun at the Senior Estates Park. We have the City Parks Department to thank for this amenity. After receiving the petition for such a park, the Parks Department went looking for and applied for grants to pay for it. They received a grant from AARP specifically for a fenced off-leash area for dogs. The area was originally planned to be larger, but finances and lawn maintenance prevailed

Lastly, it’s beginning to look a lot like Christmas! On December 4, from 12:30-5:30 p.m., the mayor and Santa Claus will be taking a tour through Woodburn on a fire truck. Go out to wave when you hear the sirens - you don’t have to be young, just young at heart! From 4:30-5:50 find carolers, cocoa and cookies in the downtown plaza (off N. 1st St.) and watch the City’s tree lighting. Afterwards, pictures can be taken with Santa at the library.

By Secretary

The board has been faced with challenging budget results in recent years. Due to that, we looked at the 3 options to address the issues. These were previously presented:

- Option 1 – Status Quo
- Option 2 – Semiprivate
- Option 3 – All-in-one

In response to some members’ concerns and balancing our need to make sure we have a stable financial plan moving forward, it was decided by the Board of Directors to post a new 4th option:

Option #4 - Dual Plan

Option #4 Plan 4.1 (Basic) would be the current HOA dues plan, it would include all the existing amenities you now receive. Dues would be $825. You may upgrade to an all-inclusive plan, called Option #4 Plan 4.2 which includes golf course access and a couple of other perks for dues of $1300, total.

All new members buying in would have to enroll in Plan 2. Over time, the benefits of more members buying into Plan 2 will reduce its cost. It also reduces the impact on current members.

We have looked at different ways to finance our operations and we need to have a system that gives us more stability since we have had negative operations margins (losses) five of the last six years. HOA dues have not kept up with inflation, HOA expenses, and the impact of Covid on our revenues. This year, we looked at options that can stabilize our financial performance moving forward.

Option #4 – Dual Plan allows us to make as little impact on current members as possible while giving us a path that will gradually bundle the cost of all our amenities and provide us with a more stable financial plan in the future.

OPTION #4 - Dual Plan

Each household chooses the plan that works for them

Plan 4.1- Basic

$825 yearly

$68.75 monthly

Monthly payment available

*Members who purchased home before 2023 and reside in their home, can choose this option for the following year during an 'open enrollment' period .

Amenities Included:

Card Room
Library
Internet Hotspot
Computer Workstation
Restaurant
Community Clubs & Activities

Not Included in Either Plan

RV Storage Lot
Golf Cart Storage Unit
Golf Cart Sticker Fees

At this time: Additional Revenue Proposals would be put on hold. This would include the lounge, the maintenance program, opening for semi private golf activities.

Plan 4.2 - Unlimited

$1300* yearly

$108.33* monthly

Monthly payment available

*This plan has the possibility to go down in price as more people elect this option.

*All new members buy in with Plan 2

Amenities Included:

Pool
Spa
Fitness Center

Portland
Snow
Forecast

By Connie Doyon

Portland, Oregon — NOAA's predicting a wetter and colder winter that might include more snow for Oregon this winter. It's the third year the Pacific Ocean has seen cooler sea surface temperatures. This is known as a La Niña winter.

Meteorologists and weather enthusiasts from across the Pacific Northwest came together Saturday morning at OMSI. The Oregon Chapter of the American Meteorological Society (AMS) hosted its 30th Annual Winter Weather Forecast Conference to break down the chance of a colder and potentially snowier weather pattern for the Pacific Northwest.

Are you a Foodie?

- If you love talking about food with others and enjoy all the nuances and specifics about special food products, a cooking club will provide you with the outlet to share this love with people who have the exact same passion. No longer need to talk endlessly about the intricacies of food to a bewildered spouse or family member; use the club to get this out of your system!
- If your cookbook collection has its very own bookshelf and is bulging at the seams, it's time to get the books down and start cooking those recipes with fellow foodies!
- If you are willing to embrace imperfection, cooking is a place of giving each the space to learn and to share. It is declaring your table a safe zone, a place of warmth and nourishment.

Foodies Unite

By Kim Farquharson

As the old saying goes, “When one door closes, another opens”. Often, we are busy going along one path, and just when we think we know where we are going, we hit a fork in the road, and we change directions. This is what makes life exciting!

WEG is about to have a new club. Jaci Pinkston and Kim Farquharson have decided to collaborate and form a new club. They haven’t decided exactly what to call it or what form it will take, but it will involve food in some way. Any ‘foodies’ among us are welcome to join in and be part of the fun.

The possibilities are endless: Cooking Classes, maybe? The sourdough class that took place earlier in the year was a great success. That could be repeated. Here are some other ideas:

- Sourdough Class
- Sous Vide Cooking
- Pasta – Make your own Fettuccine
- Chocolate
- Mini Pies and other Mini Desserts
- Baking at its finest – cookies, cakes, and so many other things
- Culinary exploration – new cuisines or cooking techniques
- Explore ‘Free’ – Sugar free, gluten free, dairy free, etc
- Preserves – Canning done easy and fun

Another part of this club might be a Dinner Party sort of thing where we would serve a select number of people for a particular event:

- High Tea Party
- Social Events
- Mystery Dinners
- Foreign Cuisine Dinners – endless possibilities for Themed Cooking
- Coordinate with other clubs for fun events

Some months, we might watch an episode of ‘The Great British Bake Off’ or ‘Chopped’ and try to replicate some of their recipes.

Does this sound like fun to you? There are many ways to be part of this fun group.

- If you are a ‘foodie’ and want to be part of the organizational part of this club, please contact either Jaci (jhpinkston@hotmail.com) or Kim (kim2far@yahoo.com) and get in on the ground floor.
- If you just want to take a particular class, we will eventually have a schedule and you will be able to participate in that event.
- If you just want to EAT and sample our wares, we’ll figure out a way to include you as well.

There will be a little bit for everyone!

The time is short, but our goal is to get some kind of event by Christmas. It may be a simple ‘Cookie Exchange’. There is a lot to do and not much time.

Our plan is to design a page for our Foodie Club and post it on the WEG webpage. This will be a spot to check for updated information and our schedule of events. Meanwhile, watch the News & Views and the Bulletin Board for updates.

Giving Thanks

Giving Thanks

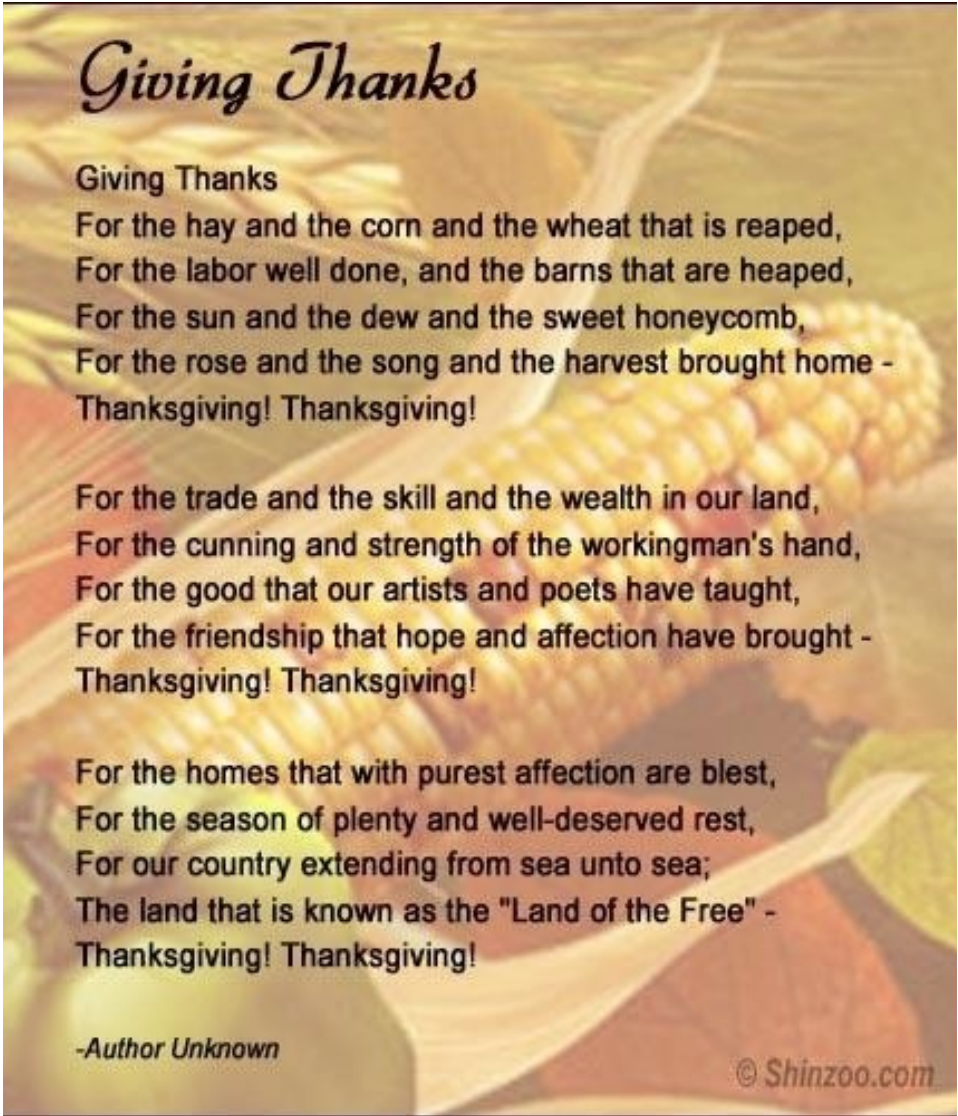

For the hay and the corn and the wheat that is reaped,
For the labor well done, and the barns that are heaped,
For the sun and the dew and the sweet honeycomb,
For the rose and the song and the harvest brought home -
Thanksgiving! Thanksgiving!

For the trade and the skill and the wealth in our land,
For the cunning and strength of the workingman's hand,
For the good that our artists and poets have taught,
For the friendship that hope and affection have brought -
Thanksgiving! Thanksgiving!

For the homes that with purest affection are blest,
For the season of plenty and well-deserved rest,
For our country extending from sea unto sea;
The land that is known as the "Land of the Free" -
Thanksgiving! Thanksgiving!

Glow Ball

By Russ Krussow Night pictures by Maryann.

On Nov. 2, the “fun for all” Annual Glow Ball event was held. Like last year, it was strictly for fun for all golfers and their partners to attend and enjoy the use of lighted golf balls even if they do not golf. It is a par 27, all par 3's from the yellow tees. The field is limited to 72 players of which most are man/women teams, alternate shot.

Registration and check in take place in the Golf Pro Shop starting around 5:00 pm, there you will get score cards and lighted golf accessories. After registration, we get together at the Gazebo for grilled food and drinks and wait for it to get dark. Golfers then play 9-holes in the night with lit-up golf balls.

This all sounds like fun, but the lighted golf balls do not travel like a normal golf ball, which adds to the fun of the golfer and non-golfer. There are several different colored lighted golf balls. It takes a bright flashlight to turn the ball light off and on. Looking at a lighted golf ball at night and trying figure out which way the ball will roll into the cup adds for laughter to the event. Then driving your golf cart with no lights to the next hole is another challenge too, so you just follow each other and hope your leader knows the way.

And then.... The Party Moved Indoors
When completed we assemble in the Golf lounge for awards & drawings. The event is funded by McCully Realtor Tim Kelly, Walmart, Abby’s Pizza, and some others with entry fees. This fun night was organized by Russ Krussow. Other great volunteers are Barbara Lucas, Glenn & LaNette Brockmeyer, Mickey Harrison, Donna Burnside, and Len Westphal.

Special thanks to Maryann for her night photography work
See you all next year in the dark.

Woodburn Art Center/Glatt Gallery

by Anne Reslock

Happy Holidays from Woodburn Art Center/Glatt Gallery. Thank you to WEG for your support to our members exhibits each month on the living room wall in the clubhouse foyer each month. This has been a great success.

For the month of December, the LR gallery will feature art from many members of the Woodburn Art Center who participate in Open Studio on Mondays 10am-3pm and Wednesdays 6pm-8:30pm. Come and enjoy the exhibit for December. Happy New Year!

Linda Chatfield will be the LR gallery contact. Thanks again for all the support.

An Oregon Dream Music Video

By William Coleman

The westward path...The Trail of Dreams
Still beckons toward the setting sun
Stretching across high desert plains,
Guiding us home to Oregon.

Out where the Cascades
Capped with snow,
Three Sisters sing a siren’s song,
Echoing down Columbia’s Gorge
Calling us home to Oregon.

Deep forest rivers rush from vast mountain glaciers
Sparkling in the warmth of the sun,
Where spirits dance through mist covered ocean beaches
And grassy glades of Oregon.
Blue Mountains rise in Eastern skies,
They guard the gold that lies beyond.
The Trail of Dreams, our journey’s end will Call us home to Oregon.

Our journeys end will call us home to Oregon

This music video that was written, recorded, and produced right here in Woodburn Estates & Golf by one of our own members. It is beautiful. Oregon truly needs a new state song that reflects the natural beauty and history of this unique place. Hopefully, "An Oregon Dream" comes close to expressing what we Oregonians already know. This video can be found on YouTube or a direct link from the N&V Plus page on the website.
